

15th – 16th November 2019 - East Zone Katha Regional Workshop

The East Zone Katha Regional Workshop was held in Royal Global School on 16 & 17 November. Renowned author and Sahitya Academy Yuva Puraskar awardee Jwishri Boro, actor & writer Sattayakee D'com Bhuyan, writer and professor Merry Baruah , and writer & director Aparna Srivastav acted as mentors for the budding writers of the region. Mentors delved into the areas of their specialisation and practice and shared it with the participants from all over the east region of the country. The four mentors spearheaded various workshops on poetry, ethnography, expressive arts and communication and theatre. The participants learnt about the importance of details and research and also telling stories. The story validation was held on the 17th where the awards were handed out to the participants. The evening ended with the participants performing skit and reciting poems.
