

73rd Independence Day Celebration at Royal Global School

On 15 August 2019, Royal Global School celebrated the 73rd Independence Day with zeal and spirit befitting the occasion. Vice Chairman, Shri A. K. Modi, Vice Chancellor of RGU Prof. (Dr). S. P. Singh, Principal Ms. Anubha Goyal and parents graced the occasion. The tri colour was unfurled by the dignitaries to mark beginning of the celebrations in the morning. The school contingent offered the guard of honour to the guests and marched past the ground. The Principal in her address emphasized on the need to be free in the real sense of the term so that the dreams of our forefathers could be realized. She passionately urged the students to follow the path of righteousness for better development of their own selves as well as that of the nation. The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Sir also spoke a few words citing the immense change that Assam has undergone in the past decade and how this day has assumed a great importance in the present unlike in the past. This was followed by a short cultural display by the students of RGS. The melodious chorus by the students infused a patriotic zeal in the audience present on this occasion. This was followed by colorful dance performance saluting the motherland. To add flavour to the mood of the day, students presented a parade of eminent personalities and makers of modern India who were remembered for their dynamism and unparalleled contribution. The audience was transported to the world of political and scientific advancements of the nation through the powerful speeches and poetry. Dynamic personalities like Rupkonwar Jyoti Prasad Agarwala, Dr Homi Jehangir Bhabha, Sri Atal Bihari Bajpayee, Sri Narendra Modi, Late Srimati Sushma Swaraj were commemorated by the students by reproducing their words on this occasion. The theme and the performance won applause and admiration. The programme ended with everyone wishing each other a happy Independence Day over refreshments.
