

ALOHOMORA (The Carnival 2017)

Alohomora – Where Muggles Meet Wizards, the Harry Potter themed School Carnival, of Royal Global School, was a witness to jam-packed zeal and zest by the students, teachers, staff, parents and guests from all over the city and the region. Mr. Sameer Sinha, Principal Secretary of the Government of Assam and Commissioner Health and Public Welfare, Government of Assam was the chief guest of the program. The program started with a welcome song sung by the school choir and the Ganesh Vandana by the students. The Carnival was accomplished with stalls let out with saleable, edibles and games. The stalls were of handmade Harry Potter Merchandise and had games The creativity unleashed by the students and co-coordinator of the event Suman Bhuyan was hailed and admired by the spectators. The Stalls The Haunted House and the Photo Booth remained the special attraction of the day. The Orchestra and the Flash Mob were in concert throughout the program. Excitement knew no bounds to the children visitors from the Nortap Village, Sonapur. Furthermore the program was embellished by the quiz competition, the Yule Ball, The Inter House Drama Competition, the treasure hunt and the Christmas carols. The program ended with a stimulating speech delivered by the Director Royal Global School.