

Amidst the lock down, students at Royal Global School celebrated the 169th birth anniversary today online on zoom where around 80 students and teachers participated to celebrate the occasion. A special assembly was jointly organised by the students and the teachers of the school. The students showcased their talents in various spheres. The programme started with a speech on the significance of this day. It was followed by recitation of the very famous poems by the students of different classes. The famous and inspiring poem "Where the mind is without fear ..." was also recited by one of the students. The famous song "Akla Chalo Re" composed by Him was also sung beautifully by the students. Principal Maam and teachers also spoke on the occasion about the life and work of the noble laureate and sang songs composed by Him. The programme concluded with the singing of the National Anthem, Jana Gana Mana, composed by none other than Tagore Himself.
