

Book reading session

June 7th, 2017 had author, Sarita Dasgupta, an author visiting the Royal Global School, Guwahati. Sarita Dasgupta writes short stories for children and is an enthusiastic bird watcher. Her novel “Feathered Friends” is a compilation of short stories on birds.

She proceeded to read out a chapter from her book “ Feathered Friends” which had the children captivated. She wound up the session by asking questions related to the story. She kept the children’s enthusiasm level high by promising them little key-chains which she had made herself.

The book Reading session was highly interactive and an enriching experience.
