

UKG students did an activity 'COOKING WITHOUT FIRE', where children made their favourite snack ' Jhal muri'. Children enthusiastically participated along with their mothers. Benefits of allowing the children to participate in cooking and also the nutritive value of different ingredients were explained by the teacher. We have many Master Chefs in the making.