

FOUNDER'S DAY 2016

On 22nd December 2016, the Founders' Day of Royal Global School was celebrated amidst a diaspora of cultural events and attended by the Honourable Chief Minister of Assam, Shri Sarbananda Sonowal who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest as well as Shri Himangshu Shekhar Das (Retd IAS) Chief Information Commissioner, Assam who was the Guest of Honour.

The program commenced with a colorful Art Exhibition showcasing some of the best oeuvre by RGS students. A music album titled "Hues of Nature" was also released on this occasion. The highlight of the evening was the staging of a fascinating Dance Drama-'Krishna' followed by a round of felicitation of the 2016 Batch Toppers, National Awardees (Students) & the Most Resilient Student of the Year by the Chief Guest.

In his address, Shri Sonowal extended his heartiest appreciation towards the Founders of the institution for having provided such a world class platform of quality education for deserving students of the state. He quoted our Honourable Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi and stated that there is no shortcut to success but the only tools of achieving one's goals are sheer dedication and discipline. He urged the students to make use of the wonderful facilities that this institution offers to emerge as a Global Citizen imbibing not academic excellence but also humane values and principles to bring about peace and tranquility in society. He concluded by congratulating all the young stars of the evening who had showcased such a resplendent visualization of the ideals of Lord Krishna.

Shri H. S. Das also expressed his happiness to have witnessed this institution scale such commendable success in a short span of time. Quoting Aristotle, he insisted that in today's academic scenario, both training and education are integral in molding an individual into a holistic being. One needs to inculcate compassion and empathy to become truly educated. He urged the youth to join politics and help steer the Nation towards Global Development. While complimenting the school for having set up a world class infrastructure for its students, he encouraged its founders to take steps towards helping other GovernmentFunded schools to also uplift their standards to Global statures.

Shri A. K. Pansari, Founder & Chairman of Royal Global School welcomed the Chief Guest by stating that it was a pleasure to have him-a Krishna Bhakt-among them on the same day that the Saga of Lord Krishna was staged. He also applauded Shri Sonowal's dynamism, perseverance and ability to reach out to the people of Assam. He assured the gathering that optimum effort is made to ensure that every student of the institution emerges as empathetic, resilient and good citizens of the nation.

The program concluded with the chanting of the National Anthem thereby bringing the curtains down on yet another memorable event in the history of this institution.
