

11th November, 2019 - Guwahati International Storytelling Festival

On the 11th of November, the children of Royal Global School from class 1 to 10 were given an exposure to storytelling sessions by eminent story tellers from various countries. It was an inaugural edition of the Guwahati International Storytelling Festival where the school had Jiovanna Conforto from Italy, Jumaini Ariff from Singapore, Priyanka Chatterjee, Rona Mentari from Indonesia and Roger Jenkins from Singapore who were present at Royal Global School to narrate age appropriate stories to the children across grades. It was an invigorating session for the children.
