

Report on Lachit Borphukan

Voice Theatre and Vivek Jalan productions staged the play “ Lachit Borphukan” on 11 December 2015 at the colosseum in Royal Global school.

This contemporary play based on the philosophy of the legendary hero of Assam Lachit Borphukan, was staged in order to pay tribute to this historical figure as well as to instill in the young generation the fervor and essence of Lachit Borphukan the great general under the Ahom King Chakradhwaj Sinha.

The play is directed by Shri Manik Roy a prominent director of Assam. Shri Vivek Jalan along with the young promising actors enthralled the audience with their theatrical skills. An array of characters like Lachit Borphukan, Chakradhwaj Sinha, Aton Buragohain, and the legendary mama through this play relived the annals of of Assam during the Mughal attack.