

If winter comes, can spring be far behind?

Festivals speak volume of social and cultural surge running through the hearts of people. On 13th April, 2020, students of IX A enthusiastically prepared PowerPoint presentation of Rongali Bihu and a solo Bihu dance in the time when we have to be reminded each other that good time will return soon. The online class had a distinct tinge of Bihu to be grateful to God and pray together for the healing of the world.
