

Rongali Bihu Celebrations

On 12th April 2019 Royal Global School celebrated Bihu in the special morning assembly. The program started with the recitation of a poem Bihu Adorini by the famous Assamese poet Mitra Deb Mahanta. Then the Tiny Tots representing the various states of India welcomed the New Year enthralling the audience with their show. Next they set the mood of Bihu fervour with their tiny feet setting the stage ablaze. This was followed by a foot tapping Bihu number performed by the graceful dancers of the school. The assembly concluded with the Principal of the school Mrs. Anubha Goyal addressing the students and wishing each one who are celebrating to feast and to be merry but also to spend quality time with their near and dear ones specially grandparents as she said they ask for nothing but a little bit of time to be spent with them.
