

There are many reasons to be happy in the world, but the biggest reason of them all is books.

World Book day is a celebration of authors, illustrators, books and most importantly it is a celebration of reading. This day is marked in over 100 countries and Royal Global School celebrated this epic event with a cornucopia of exciting events online.

The day started with a reading pledge undertaken by all the students with their Class teachers.

Wonderful bookmarks were made across the school with a quote on 'reading' written on it.

The children were also advised to read a book of their choice to mark this day.

And finally our Principal ma'am went around the junior classrooms regaling the students with a tale called ' The Story of Mai'.

Happy World Book Day to all!!
