

30th of August to 1st September - RGSMUN 2019

The world that was built on the pillars of justice, peace and equality is now crumbling down and the need of the hour is for the posterity to form assertive opinions and take bold actions. Royal Global School Model United Nations held from 30th of August to 1st September provided the youth with a holistic platform to nurture their diplomacy skills and evaluate the prevailing political circuit.

The opening ceremony of this three-day extravaganza began with lighting of the lamp to shed away darkness whilst the guru Vandana echoed in the background. It was followed by a classical dance performance that transported us back to where we belong- our Indian roots.

The power that an individual encompasses towards bringing change was reflect in the speech of the principal of Royal Global School, Mrs. Anubha Goyal who addressed the gathering and felicitated the dignitaries.

The Chief guest was the renowned KG Suresh, Director General of India's Premier Media Training Institute, IIMC a senior journalist and communication strategist. He graced the delegates with his humble presence and shared some enlightening words

The face behind this success, the secretary general Aaswash Mahanta, in his opening speech extended his warm greetings to the delegates whilst also highlighting the ongoing catastrophes that plague the world this very moment. After the introduction of the Esteemed executive board, with the thud of the gavel he declared the Royal Global school Model United Nations open!

This time the conference simulated 7 committees with very contemporary agendas ranging from statelessness to addressing the colonisation of celestial bodies. No end of the horizon was left uncovered.

Adopting a rather different and beneficiary approach the conference commenced with an interactive panel discussion with the chief guest on the importance of righteous opinions. The event concluded with everybody rising to the tunes of the Indian nation anthem.

RGS MUN 2019 also was fortunate to have another special guest. Ambassador Dr. Deepak Vohra, Special advisor to the Prime Minister and special Advisor Ladakh, Leh and Kargil.

Ambassador Vohra addressed the delegates about United Nations, the growth of India in the international scenario and the high position India holds in the world. He emphasized the importance of the role of Youth in the development of our Nation. His love for the country was very exemplary in his speech. Touching upon the various new schemes introduced by the Government and its success and how it would change India for the better. He could get across such heavy topics with so much of ease and wit that the delegates were totally attentive and participative. The session ended with enriched knowledge. Royal Global school Principal Mrs. Anubha goyal felicitated the guest.

1st of September saw the closing of the grand event of RGSMUN. The Chair and the Vice Chair of each committee appreciated the committees and gave away certificates and Best Delegate Award. More than 280 participants were there and the Best Delegation Award went to Gurukul Grammar School. Principal of RGS, Anubha Goyal, Chief Guest Mr. Deepak Vohra and Secretary General Aaswash Mahanta spoke a few words to conclude the event. Aaswash Mahanta finally declared the conference closed.
